Date of bail review hearing: March 1, 2013

Before the court is defendant's Motion to Re-Open and Amend the Detention Issue. The undersigned has considered the filings, oral proffers and arguments of the parties.

Defendant argues that since the Spokane County Jail erroneously released him on February 1st and he voluntarily surrendered, that this is an indication there are a combination of conditions to reasonably assure his appearance at court dates. Under the preponderance standard, a substantial corporate surety bond and electronic monitoring would reasonably assure his appearance.

However, as to the issues of supervisability and risk to the community, insufficient information has been presented to reasonably assure that defendant would not be a risk to the community. The undersigned concludes that the earlier detention order should not be disturbed. There have been unsettling allegations of threats related to the case agent and others.

Accordingly, the Motion is denied.
